

About Me

Worksheet and reflection activities:

What personal characteristics enabled me to take on the challenge and adventure of living abroad?

Is there someone in my life or a particular experience in my history that influenced my decision to live abroad?

What are my personal challenges right now? What can I do to overcome those challenges in order to start or further my business?

What do I bring from my own culture to my life in this new country? Does that influence how I am as a business person?

For those just starting out, what can I do in order to achieve my first few goals?

For those thinking of becoming an entrepreneur, what are my strengths and my weaknesses?

A year from now, what story will I tell about my achievements?